

Teacher of MFL

Are you passionate about languages and ready to inspire the linguists of the future? Join Cranbourne, a school built on the values of Care, Challenge, Creativity, and Community, where your enthusiasm and expertise will be valued and supported.

About Us

Cranbourne is a welcoming, inclusive, and forward-thinking school, where dedicated staff and a diverse student body create a vibrant community. With our recent Ofsted inspection highlighting our strong practice and supportive culture, our school continues to grow. Our ethos is built on collaboration, innovation, and supporting each other to maintain a positive work-life balance.

The Modern Foreign Languages Department is a cornerstone of our school's internationalism. We take pride in our innovative approach, high standards, and commitment to inclusivity, exemplified by being the first secondary school in the UK to achieve the EMTAS EAL Excellence Award at Diamond Level.

The Role

We are seeking an enthusiastic and reflective Teacher of MFL (focus on French) to join our forward-thinking team. This is a fantastic opportunity to develop your teaching practice in a department known for its creativity and excellence. You will have the chance to contribute to a culture of inclusivity, supported by a thriving Young Interpreters programme and a commitment to embracing internationalism.

We are seeking someone with the drive and passion to further inspire our students. You'll be part of a team dedicated to continually enhancing student achievement through subject-specialist teaching.

What We Offer

We provide our staff with a wide variety of professional development opportunities, including collaborative twilights and conferences. Alongside an excellent induction programme, we offer an inspiring teaching and learning environment and outstanding ongoing professional learning to support and enhance your career.

Our Community

At Cranbourne, Care for students and staff is at the heart of all we do. We thrive on Challenge, inspiring students to achieve their full potential. We foster Creativity in our teaching and encourage students to think beyond the classroom. And, above all, we celebrate our Community, ensuring every member feels valued and supported.

Safeguarding Statement

Cranbourne and Hampshire County Council are committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expect all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. We will ensure that all our recruitment and selection practices reflect this commitment. All successful candidates will be subject to Disclosure and Barring Service checks along with other relevant employment checks.
